

Anker Leschaco Group opened overseas branch in Vietnam

Bremen/Germany-based Anker Leschaco Group further expands its global network. With effect from 1st June 2009, the independently operating subsidiary Leschaco Vietnam is part of the worldwide network. Head of the office in Ho Chi Minh City is Mr. Tobias M. Grümmer (33).

(Bremen, 02.06.2009) From the beginning of the nineties the Anker Leschaco Group has been covering the Asian market. With Leschaco Vietnam, which was founded as a Joint Venture together with the long term partner SGN Logistics & Trading Co., Ltd., the group wants to complete its position on the strong growing inner Asian market as well as develop new possibilities for the global network.

Oliver Oestreich, member of the board of the Anker Leschaco Group, primarily regards the development of the business within Asia as an important element of success. With the appointment of Mr. Tobias M. Grümmer (33) as CEO, the company has won someone who has already worked successfully in a leading position in Vietnam. There will be ten people in the office in Ho Chi Minh City in the near future, a further office is planned for the Hanoi area.
